

2025 Election Candidate Biography – Charity Watson

Vision and goals/platform

I believe that each generation has a moral responsibility to educate the next one, and each generation has a moral right to access one.

Local community involvement

I am a current member of the Voices in the Wilderness Community Choir. I teach piano locally under the name Kleskun Music Education. I volunteer to run a Songwriting Circle hosted by the Grande Prairie Public Library, and also last year volunteered in the Grande Prairie Opera's "Cinderella".

Education, career and/or experience

My background is in sales, customer service, and music, with 25+ years of experience performing, collaborating, and educating with variety of churches and theatre groups.

Biography

My husband Kris and I are both born and raised in the Grande Prairie Area. We actually still live in the house I was raised in out by Kleskun Hill. We have 5 kids, all 5 are either currently attending a Peace Wapiti school or have graduated.
